

THE COUNCIL.

A LIVELY TIME OVER THE CHIEF OF POLICE MATTER.

The Investigating Committee Admit Evidence Sustaining Their Report Fully and Are Met by Obstruction Tactics—The Chief Admits Many of the Charges.

The City Council met in regular session yesterday morning. Present, Barrett, Bosbyshell, Chandler, Hanley, Hiller, Lovell, Mathews, Sinsabaugh, Teed and Mr. President—10.

Mr. Chandler's amendment that the conclusion of the report, recommending the dismissal of Mr. Cuddy, be stricken out, was carried by a voice vote.

Mr. Barrett called for the original motion.

Clerk Teed again read the minutes of July 10th, appointing the committee.

Mr. Cohn: By that we can only entertain action on the charges of a Chinaman.

The Chair: It says "all the irregularities."

Mr. Cohn: Then all the Council are guilty.

Mr. Collins: The committee did not get testimony on both sides.

Mr. Chandler: If the committee has not done so, it has not carried out its instructions.

Mr. Barrett moved the report be referred back to the committee.

Mr. Cohn: The committee is ready to report further, it has the evidence.

Mr. Chandler: Has the committee got any papers?

Mr. Sinsabaugh: We have papers.

Mr. Hanley: Well, I don't know whether I am Chandler or Hanley. I don't know where I am on this vote.

The Chair: The question is, to refer the report back to the committee.

The motion was defeated by the following vote:

Ayes—Barrett, Chandler, Cohn, Collins, Moriarty—5.

Nays—Book, Bosbyshell, Hanley, Hiller, Lovell, Mathews, Sinsabaugh, Teed and Mr. President—9.

The Council then adjourned till 1 p.m.

Afternoon Session.

President Humphreys called the Council to order at 1:15 p.m. The room was a perfect sweatbox, and several members doffed their coats and lighted their cigars.

Clerk Teed announced that the motion of Mr. Book was before the Council, to adopt the report of the committee, as amended.

Mr. Barrett wanted the opinion of the City Attorney on the minutes of July 16th, as to the duties of the committee.

A communication was made from W. C. Farnum, inviting the Council to witness a test of two new fire engines on Labor Day next Tuesday (today) at 2 p.m. The invitation was accepted.

The report of the Light Committee recommending the establishing of two new electric lights in different parts of the city was laid over one week.

Mr. Cohn: Asking for information about an electric-mast at the Santa Fé depot. Mr. Mathews said the committee had already recommended payment for the mast.

At 11 a.m. President Humphreys announced the report of the Police Committee.

The report was read, containing charges against the Chief of Police, which had already been published in THE TIMES.

Mr. Barrett called for the reading of the resolution authorizing the appointment of the special committee, and laying down its duties.

Clerk Teed read such resolution from the minutes of July 16th last.

Mr. Barrett moved that the report of the committee be referred back, to bring in a report in accordance with its instructions.

Mr. Collins seconded the motion of Mr. Book.

Mr. Lovell said he hoped it would not prevail.

Mr. Cohn favored Mr. Barrett's motion. The part of the report recommending the discharge of the Chief of Police is superfluous. He offered as an amendment to Mr. Barrett's motion that the report be received and acted upon serially.

Mr. Book said that the words "and those things appertaining thereto," meaning the office of Chief of Police, had been omitted from the minutes, or else he did not hear them; hence the duties of the committee may be prescribed.

Mr. Sinsabaugh said that in addition to Mr. Cuddy's conduct that in addition there should be an investigation of any irregularities in the police department.

Clerk Teed: It is here in the minutes.

Mr. Chandler: I understand the committee were neither to condemn or acquit, but to state facts. He moved to strike out that portion of the report relative to the discharge of the Chief of Police.

Mr. Cohn moved that Stephen M. White, attorney for Chief Cuddy, be heard.

Mr. Sinsabaugh arose to a question of privilege: This Council works for no pay from year to year. He himself had never received a penny for his services; he once got a lead pencil. Personally he has nothing against Cuddy, but what is done is what the law requires of the law.

Mr. White, Mr. Cuddy's counsel, is here. If we have an attorney on one side then we want an attorney on the other side.

Mr. Cohn: Dr. Sinsabaugh is an attorney to the defense, and acted in the line of his duty.

Mr. Cohn: Dr. Sinsabaugh is an American; I am a foreigner. He understands the English language, in which the charges are written.

President Humphreys (to Mr. Cohn): Your technical points are not good, and are out of order.

Mr. Cohn: I don't think anything Mr. White can say will change my vote.

Mr. Barrett: Why do members of the committee say on the streets that Mr. Cuddy is guilty?

Mr. Chandler: I don't want to hear anything agitated by papers or political parties. I am willing to stay here a week in order to give Mr. Cuddy a show. If he is guilty I will vote to put him out. I move that portion of the report that is not in accordance with the instruction of the Council be stricken out.

Mr. Collins arose to speak, but was called to order by Mr. Cohn. Mr. Collins said that Mr. Cohn had already spoken three times to the question. It was the original mover of the motion. He further made the astonishing motion to have the Committee examine into the doings of the Police Commission for a year and a half back.

Mr. Hanley said that ex-Chief of Police Skinner had been bounced without an investigation, and Cuddy should be investigated and bounced if guilty.

Mr. Collins moved to receive the report and discharge the committee, and that the Council meet as a committee of the whole next Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock to inquire into the workings of the Police Commission for a year and a half back.

President Humphreys: The motion is out of order. The committee must not examine into the doings of past commissions.

Mr. Collins (vehemently): You are out of order, Mr. President.

Mr. Chandler: You can't have me at such a meeting, even if you should get out a search warrant.

Mr. Cohn: I move the report of the committee be received and acted on serially and that all foreign matter be stricken out.

Mr. Sinsabaugh: Let us stick to the original motion.

Mr. Lovell: The point is to declare the office vacant. I move the office be declared vacant.

Mr. Sinsabaugh: I do not favor that motion, but the Council has the power to dismiss Mr. Cuddy.

Mr. Collins renewed his year-and-a-half motion, but nobody sided in enough with him to second his ideas.

President Humphreys: The motion is that that part of the report declaring the office of the Chief of Police vacant be stricken out.

Mr. Cohn: If a piece be taken off the report here, and a piece there, the entire report will soon be destroyed. We have sworn statements to back up the report.

Mr. Cohn: I move an amendment to the report that the report be received, and referred to the Committee of the Whole to report next Wednesday.

Several members declared they could not attend a night session.

Mr. Chandler (emphatically): I won't come. I want it now.

Mr. Chandler: My point of order is, this business is now before the Council.

Mr. Barrett: I move to adjourn to 1 p.m., to take up a special order.

The motion stood on roll-call:

Ayes—Barrett, Book, Cohn, Collins, Hanley, Moriarty—6.

Nays—Book, Bosbyshell, Chandler, Hiller, Lovell, Mathews, Sinsabaugh, Teed and Mr. President—8.

Mr. Cohn: I move to lay the report on the table.

TIE AND TRACK.

The New Transcontinental Freight Tariff.

The new transcontinental freight rates have been received, and were being distributed to merchants yesterday by the Santa Fe Company. If any have been overlooked in the distribution they will be supplied at once upon application at the Santa Fe office, No. 29 North Spring street.

The tariffs are shown in nine sheets, as follows:

No. 8—From Atlantic seaboard common points to Pacific Coast terminals.

No. 9—From Pacific Coast terminals to Atlantic seaboard common points.

No. 10—East and west bound, between Pacific Coast common points and the Missouri and Mississippi Rivers, Chicago, Detroit, Buffalo and common points, and points east of Buffalo and west of Atlantic seaboard common points.

No. 11—From Missouri River common points to Pacific Coast terminals.

No. 12—From Pacific Coast terminals to Missouri River common points.

No. 13—From Chicago and common points to Pacific Coast terminals.

No. 14—From Detroit, Cincinnati and common points to Pacific Coast terminals.

No. 15—From Buffalo, Pittsburgh and common points to Pacific Coast terminals.

No. 16—From New York and Pennsylvania, which are specified (of Buffalo and Pittsburgh) common points and west of Atlantic seaboard common points, to Pacific Coast terminals.

Tariff No. 10 is governed to current western classification. The other tariffs are straight commodity lists, and are made to cover, as far as possible, all commodities which find a market in the terminals named, and name the rates on all given articles from all points at which they are manufactured or produced for those markets.

Chairman Leeds has issued an explanatory circular on tariffs Nos. 8, 9 and 10, which is given below. Lines east of St. Louis and Chicago have given notice that they will not accept the new tariffs, through business provided by the new tariffs, but will charge their full local tariffs over such portion of their respective roads as the freight is carried.

The Santa Fe Company, however, announces that until further notice they will protect all rates provided in the new tariffs, even though they may be compelled to allow trunk lines their full rates.

CHAIRMAN LEEDS'S CIRCULAR.

Transcontinental territory covers freight traffic as follows: To, from or passing through, Sacramento, Marysville, Mojave, San Bernardino and Colton, Cal.; Portland, Or.; Tacoma and Seattle, Wash.; Vancouver, B.C., on the one hand. To, from or through points on the east of the ninety-seven mountain range, including Wallowa, Marion, and on the other hand.

Atlantic seaboard common points will be understood as being such points as are made common points with New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore, by Atlantic seaboard initial roads on business either east or west-bound to or from Mississippi River points or points west thereof. From the hand-bound, the several fast freight lines and Atlantic seaboard common points can be most readily ascertained.

Pacific Coast terminals: San Francisco, Sacramento, Marysville, Stockton, San Jose, Oakland (Sixteenth street), Los Angeles and San Diego, Cal.; Portland and Astoria, Or.; Tacoma, Seattle and Port Townsend, Wash.; Victoria, Vancouver and New Westminster, British Columbia.

Tariff No. 8, west-bound, applies only from Atlantic seaboard common points to Pacific Coast terminals, and does not apply to intermediate points.

Tariff No. 9, east-bound, applies only from Pacific Coast terminals to Atlantic seaboard common points, and does not apply to intermediate points.

Tariff No. 10, east and west-bound, applies in connection with the western classification (except such commodities as are specifically mentioned on pages 4, 5 and 6 of this tariff and exceptions that may be provided for in west-bound territorial tariffs) between Pacific Coast common points and intermediate and eastern common points, as indicated in tariff No. 8, opposite class rates.

Intermediate points, meaning such points as are on the lines of the different roads members of this association on or west of the limits embraced by a line drawn through the following named points, commencing on the north at Vancouver, B.C., and running south to Victoria, Wash., Portland, San Marysville, Sacramento, San Diego, Cal. The intermediate rates used by any of the lines of this association will not be higher than the rate which is made to a terminal by such line over the same route.

For example, business routed from Pittsburgh, Pa., Kansas City to Ocean-side, Cal., would take the same rate as though shipped from Pittsburgh, Pa., to San Diego, Cal. The same shipment from Pittsburgh, Pa., via St. Paul, Northern Pacific, Oregon Railway and Navigation Company via Portland, the Shasta route, Southern Pacific Company and California Southern Railroad to Oceanside would take the same rate as though shipped via the direct line.

J. S. LEEDS, Chairman.

St. Louis, Mo., August 24, 1888.

Warning.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from consumption and lung diseases than any other. It is probable that every one, without exception, receives vast numbers of tubercle germs into the system, and where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly, and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat, and, it allowed to continue, it ravages, they extend to the lungs, producing consumption, now, all this being caused by a catarrh. Now, all this is dangerous, and, if allowed to proceed, will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous, and may lose you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your throat, lungs or nostrils, obtain a bottle of Dr. Boeche's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.

GEN. N. P. BANKS, still in the field of politics, is talked of for Congress in the Fifth Massachusetts District.

THE Ohio Democratic State Committee is reported short-handed for funds "for legitimate campaign expenses." No report on the state of the fund for other sorts of expenses.

THE Cabinet contributions to the cause of the suffering National Democratic Committee are said to aggregate $150,000, and Mr. Cleveland's $10,000. The President once came to the rescue of the Charleston sufferers in the imminent sum of $100.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND subscribed $10,000 to the Democratic campaign fund to promote his own reelection. The President, it will be remembered, subscribed $100—or was it $75—to the fund for the relief of sufferers from the Charleston earthquake.

THE Trombone is continually boasting of its small advertisements. It is a very easy matter to fill up a page by running a number of notices that have been dead for weeks, or even months. This is an habitual practice with the Trombone, the leading apostle of humbug in the field of journalism.

THE Territorial Democratic Convention of Arizona Territory, which met in Tucson yesterday, refused to endorse the administration of Cleveland's appointee, Gov. Zulick, formerly of New Jersey and Sonora. Zulick is rather too haughty a pill even for the indurated stomach of an Arizona Democrat.

"A TACTICAL move" is what the Boston Herald thinks the President's message to be—"a move in the game of politics." Many other Democratic papers admit the same thing, by implication, judging from their style of asking the question. The message was a stump speech, not a statesman's production. The object is obvious—to divert the country's attention from the tariff discussion, which is a losing operation to the free-trade Cleveland party. But let our antagonists be held down to the work, and keep them "on the run."

Still Fighting for Time.

The Council investigation of the official conduct of Chief of Police Cuddy, yesterday, resulted in a large amount of discussion, but very little action—or rather, none at all.

The charges brought against Mr. Cuddy were amply proved. In fact, he virtually admitted the truth of most of them. It was shown that he had permitted gambling games to run and had forbidden his subordinates to raid them; that he had made exceptions of certain favored prostitutes when raids were made on that class of establishments; that he had attempted to discharge an officer immediately after said officer had been threatened with vengeance by a woman of the town, whose displeasure he had incurred; that he had turned "macs" loose when the stern hand of the law should have been allowed to deal with them, and that he had, as a general thing, stood as a shield between the disreputable classes and justice, instead of being a terror to evil doers.

In spite of this damning evidence, Mr. Cuddy's defenders in the Council, while constantly protesting that they wished to see him at once dismissed if the charges were proved, fought step by step for delay throughout the entire length of the discussion. Such action neither reflects credit upon themselves nor benefits their client. When those charges were first formulated, Mr. Cuddy assumed a very lofty and dignified air of injured innocence. He desired—nay, he demanded—a full and immediate investigation. The Council has afforded him the opportunity for such investigation, but instead of assisting that body in arriving at the facts, as a man conscious of his innocence would have done, both he and his friends are making every effort to defeat the investigation and to gain time. This is not the action of an honest man, but it is the course which would naturally be adopted by a wrong-doer who is cornered and sees no way out of his dilemma.

The course of those Councilmen who defend Mr. Cuddy is not creditable to them as public officers, entrusted by the citizens with great responsibilities, and who are justly expected to waive all party or personal feelings in the discharge of their official duties. The investigation of this matter has—as we are forced to believe, very unnecessarily—been postponed for two weeks. Upon that date, the citizens have a right to demand of the Council that this matter shall, once for all, be brought to a definite conclusion, and that Mr. Cuddy, having been plainly shown to be an unfit person for the responsible position which he holds, shall be removed from office, and be replaced by a man under whose charge the police department shall no longer be run in the interest of prostitutes, pimps and gamblers.

If the Democrats persist in making this a party issue, they are thoroughly welcome to it. In that case, the votes cast in our next municipal election will show, not how many Republicans, Democrats and Prohibitionists there are in Los Angeles, but how many good citizens and how many of the dangerous element and their sympathizers. Friends of good government are not in the habit of resorting to anonymous tactics with the press.

THE San Francisco Bulletin finds it difficult to regard the notification of the State Board of Equalization of its intention to raise the assessment roll of that county in any other light but that of a joke. In this section the proposed action of the board will be considered as a very timely and appropriate fact. San Francisco ought to be too proud to permit a little place like Los Angeles to bear so large a portion of the burden of State government. Outsiders will begin to believe that Los Angeles is a more important city than San Francisco.

The President's plan of retaliation would be an excellent thing for Halifax and St. Johns, which have railroad communication with all the other parts of the Dominion, and for the Grand Trunk and Intercolonial Railway, which does not cross American territory. The $400,000,000 of commerce that now goes through New York and Boston and over American railroads would be very welcome to the Nova Scotia and New Brunswick ports and railroads.

The course of the Senate Finance Committee in granting hearings to all interested parties during the preparation of its tariff bill is in marked contrast with the star-chamber proceedings of Mr. Mills's committee.

THE endless Sharon case continues to develop new sensations. A little relief will probably be afforded the public for six months, during which Judge Terry will languish in jail.

AMUSEMENTS.

AT THE OPERA-HOUSE.—The little farce called "Rags" is so much above the average of its kind that its merits at once stand approved. The company, as a whole, are very good, the voices of fair quality, the dancing agile to a degree, and even the dreaded but never-to-be-omitted "topical song" not wholly pointless.

Hattie Bernard Chase, the soubrette star of the play, is a really beautiful girl, possessing a charm of face that is as quaint as it is uncomon, and though obliged to put herself through the usual paces and gambolings of her role, does so with grace and discretion. "Rags" was played to a good house, and will be presented through the week.

Mr. Mitchell: I am not complaining of it.

Mr. Butler: Right behind the Senator from Oregon.

Mr. Mitchell: A good place to stand.

Mr. Butler: It gives me great pleasure to follow him. If he leads me astray, he will be held responsible. The bill is an open, flagrant violation of the treaty between this Government and a government with which it is on terms of peace and good will.

Mr. Mitchell: Does the Senator think that the repeal of an existing law is a violation of that law?

Mr. Butler: I think there is a good deal of politeness in this whole business, and it is not a very seemly thing either. But for the fact that we are on the eve of a Presidential election, and the entire party to get the votes of the Pacific States, this scene would not be enacted in the Senate at all.

Mr. Mitchell: The Senator is speaking of his own party.

Mr. Teller: How about the House of Representatives passing this bill?

Mr. Butler: The Republican Senate

that organization would solve the liquor question most expeditiously. Mr. Dewey has seen enough of the third party, and has concluded to rejoin the Democratic ranks. In the course of his statement he says:

He further charge that, while the Prohibition party is so outspoken and persistent in its opposition to the liquor traffic, there is a movement found in all its declarations the slightest foundation upon which to build an intelligent hope for the consummation of its avowed purpose. Upon the other hand, I am reluctantly state, because the statement is true and cannot be controverted, that its constituents have been, and still is, "Give us a new party," and that it is an extremely popular party with the temperance, pacificism, and other movements, it has never failed to discourage and deride all reformatory suggestions not born of the third party.

Good Campaign Literature.

The Times-Mirror Company continues to receive orders for those issues of THE TIMES containing the three great speeches of Messrs. Williams, Fitch and Sheldon, and is prepared to furnish copies by the hundred, or thousand, or hundred thousand. These speeches make exceedingly effective campaign documents, and should be circulated widely. Send in your orders. Prices: Per 100 copies, $2.50; per 1000 copies, $20.

At a recent banquet given in Boston, it the Hotel Brunswick, were present, among other guests, young Mr. Hearst of the San Francisco Examiner, the Hon. Mike Tarpy and other gentlemen from the Pacific Coast. A Boston paper says of the banquet:

The occasion was a genuine Democratic love feast. California was carried by 1500 majority after the sherry, 3000 after the claret, and 7500 after the champagne. The Pacific Coast is uncommonly well represented. Democratic headquarters were well represented, and the Californian gentlemen who dined together last night will be very largely responsible for the looked-for Democratic triumph.

The basis of calculation here used is liquid, Democratic and shifting. Our statements abroad are nearly as reliable as their estimates as that other enthusiastic Democrat who, seeing seven lone some-cab-lights coming up Spring street, exclaimed: "See (hic) therelorn (hic) strum Dem'cratic (hic) pos'sesh'n! More'n (hic) fifty thou(hic) s' torches in (hic) line! . . . Eu(hic)rup!"

THE Republican meeting at San Bernardino last Saturday night was a complete success. A gathering of not less than 4000 citizens, embracing men of all political faiths, was present to hear the Hon. William Williams expound tariff, protection and industrial questions, to which his two-hours' speech was devoted. Never was there a more attentive or more interested audience. The address abounded in facts, figures, pertinent points, telling arguments, bright hits and eloquent periods, as might have been expected, and it was received with marked favor. The San Bernardino Republican managers are arranging for a very thorough polling and canvass of the county, and she may be expected to give a good account of herself after "the smoke of battle" has cleared away, the "ides of November" arrived, and we have "met the enemy in the field of future," when he will go down with a "dull thud."

THE female writer of two anonymous communications, signed "W.C.T.U.," who goes after the scalp of an alleged male liar "not of the Marty Washington type," and who announces that "We have not been on your coast but for a fortnight," is respectfully reminded of the standing rule of this paper: "Send real name, not necessarily for publication, but as an evidence of good faith." The worthy organization which this anonymous writer professes to speak for has generally been able to secure a hearing by proceeding according to proper methods, and its responsible representatives are not in the habit of resorting to anonymous tactics with the press.

THE San Francisco Bulletin finds it difficult to regard the notification of the State Board of Equalization of its intention to raise the assessment roll of that county in any other light but that of a joke. PASADENA.

A WATER-SPOUT IN THE SIERRA MADRE MOUNTAINS.

Was it a Cyclone fooling around? Sabbath Services—The Odd Fellows preparing for their Grand Blow-out—The Raymond Opening—Personal Items.

PASADENA, Sept. 3.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] The storm in the Sierra Madre Mountains, northeast of this city, on Sunday afternoon, was phenomenal. The huge masses of dark clouds seemed to charge to and fro, in advance and retreat like mighty hosts in battle, swaying back and forth as though they were things of life. As the clouds darkened they assumed the form of an enormous inverted cone, with its lower end apparently just east of Wilson's Peak, and the general appearance of a waterspout was maintained for some twenty minutes, after which the cone gradually flattened and spread out until a terrible rainstorm seemed deluging the mountain cations, and after some time a most beautiful rainbow, that "bright bow of promise," appeared in the far eastern sky, hung there while and then the whole mass of blackish-green clouds moved off toward the Arizona desert and disappeared as the shades of night fell on this broad valley, leaving us a sultry, lowering and sleep-destroying atmosphere.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

J. R. Townsend spoke at the services of the Y.M.C.A., at Williams Hall, yesterday. His subject, from the life of Saul, was entitled: "A life begun in great promise is ended in disgrace." The speaker called attention to the different epochs in the life of Saul, which eventuated in his self destruction. Special prayer meetings are to be held each evening this week at 7 o'clock, and will be of 15 minutes duration each.

Work on the building of the Y.M.C.A. was to be resumed this morning.

There was a large attendance at the M.E. Church and Tabernacle yesterday. Dr. Cherrington of San Fernando, a most interesting speaker, conducted the services both morning and evening. He also addressed the children at the afternoon services.

At the Presbyter Church Rev. Cornelius conducted the services both morning and evening, and the church was well filled at each service, notwithstanding the extreme heat.

At the South Pasadena M. E. Church the pastor, Rev. A. W. Bunker, preached upon "Giving to the Lord," while in the evening Dr. Wood lectured on the "Catacombs of Rome" to a large and deeply-interested audience.

THE ODD FELLOWS.

Preparations are making in many directions for the proper reception of the Odd Fellows on the 19th inst., the day designated for their visit to this city. Pasadenaans, clean up your streets, yards, alleys and byways; assist the Daughters of Rebecca with money and creature comforts that they may accord the visiting strangers not only plenty of sightseeing, but a bountiful repast afterwards for sightseeing is provocative of both hunger and thirst.

Please, Mr. Reid, and gentlemen of the enforcement committee, may we tender our visitors a little wine for the "stomach's sake" on the 19th inst? Or must we send them over to sundry places on South Fair Oaks to buy "luncheons"—the new name for "crackers"—and assuage their thirst in that manner?

RAYMOND.

The hotel help arrived last night, and this morning were busily at work putting the huge hotelery in complete order for the first excursion, which will leave Boston on the 10th, and arrive here about the 19th inst. Mr. C. H. Merrill has the management of the hotel. The bar will be a thing of the past, but the probabilities are that before the hotel opens the "wine-at-table" question will be settled to the satisfaction of the hotel men and their guests.

Col. L. Dillman will open the St. Nicholas on the 15th inst. This house has been thoroughly overhauled and renovated, and will be operated in first-class style.

Their vehicle was not injured in the least, and their horse was stopped after running a short distance.

Ruskin on Christian Duty.

(Inter Ocean.)

JETMORE (Kan.) Aug. 18.—To the Editor: Will you kindly publish the following extract from John Ruskin, in "Sesame and Lilies"? To my mind it is the grandest, clearest, most forcible religious thought extant, and shows so clearly how far our present churches have wandered from the real and the true. It is a burning rebuke to nearly every nineteenth century Christian.

"This is the one thing constantly reiterated by our Master—the order of all others that is given oftenest. 'Do justice and judgment.' That's your Bible order; that's your service of God; not praying nor psalm-singing.

"You are told, indeed, to sing psalms when you are merry, and to pray when you need anything, and by the perversion of the evil spirit we get to think that praying and psalm-singing are service.

"If a child finds itself in want of anything it runs in and asks its father for it. Does it call that doing its father a service? If it begs for a toy or a piece of cake, does it call that serving its father?

"That, with God, is prayer, and He likes to hear it.

"He likes you to ask Him for cake when you want it; but He doesn't call that serving Him.

"Begging is not serving. God likes mere beggars as little as you do. He likes honest servants, not beggars.

"So when a child loves its father very much and is happy, it may sing little songs about him, but it doesn't call that serving his father; neither is it singing songs about God serving God. It is enjoying ourselves if it is anything; most probably it is nothing; but if it is anything it is serving ourselves, not God, and yet we are impudent enough to call our beggings and chantings 'divine service.' We say divine service (?) will be performed (that's our word; the form is gone through) at 11 o'clock. Alas! unless we perform divine service in every willing act of our lives, we never perform it at all. The one divine work—the one ordered sacrifice—is to do justice; and it is the last we are ever inclined to do. Anything rather than that.

"As much charity as you choose, but THINKER.

What good does it do the working-man to get a discount of 10 per cent. on a suit of clothing if you deprive him of the opportunity to earn the money to buy that suit?—[A. W. Beard.]

THE BUMINUM LIME ROCK PAVING AND IMPROVEMENT COMPANY.

Take this opportunity of informing the citizens and property-owners of the city that the pavement laid on Main street between First and Third streets, is now Buminum lime rock, but is an artificial mixture, and was laid by our company. We make this announcement for the purpose of dispelling the minds of those who entertain the belief that this pavement was laid by this company, and are disposed to criticize our material as being soft and not suitable for the streets of this city. The only Buminum lime rock pavement here was laid by this company, and extends on Main street from the south line of Third to Ninth street, and on Spring street from Temple to Ninth street. Buminum lime rock does not become soft and mushy under the heat of the sun, but always remains firm and elastic. We have already laid on the streets of this city about 500,000 square feet of this pavement, to which we take pleasure in inviting inspection. Very respectfully yours, Buminum Lime Rock Paving and Improvement Company.
